mount

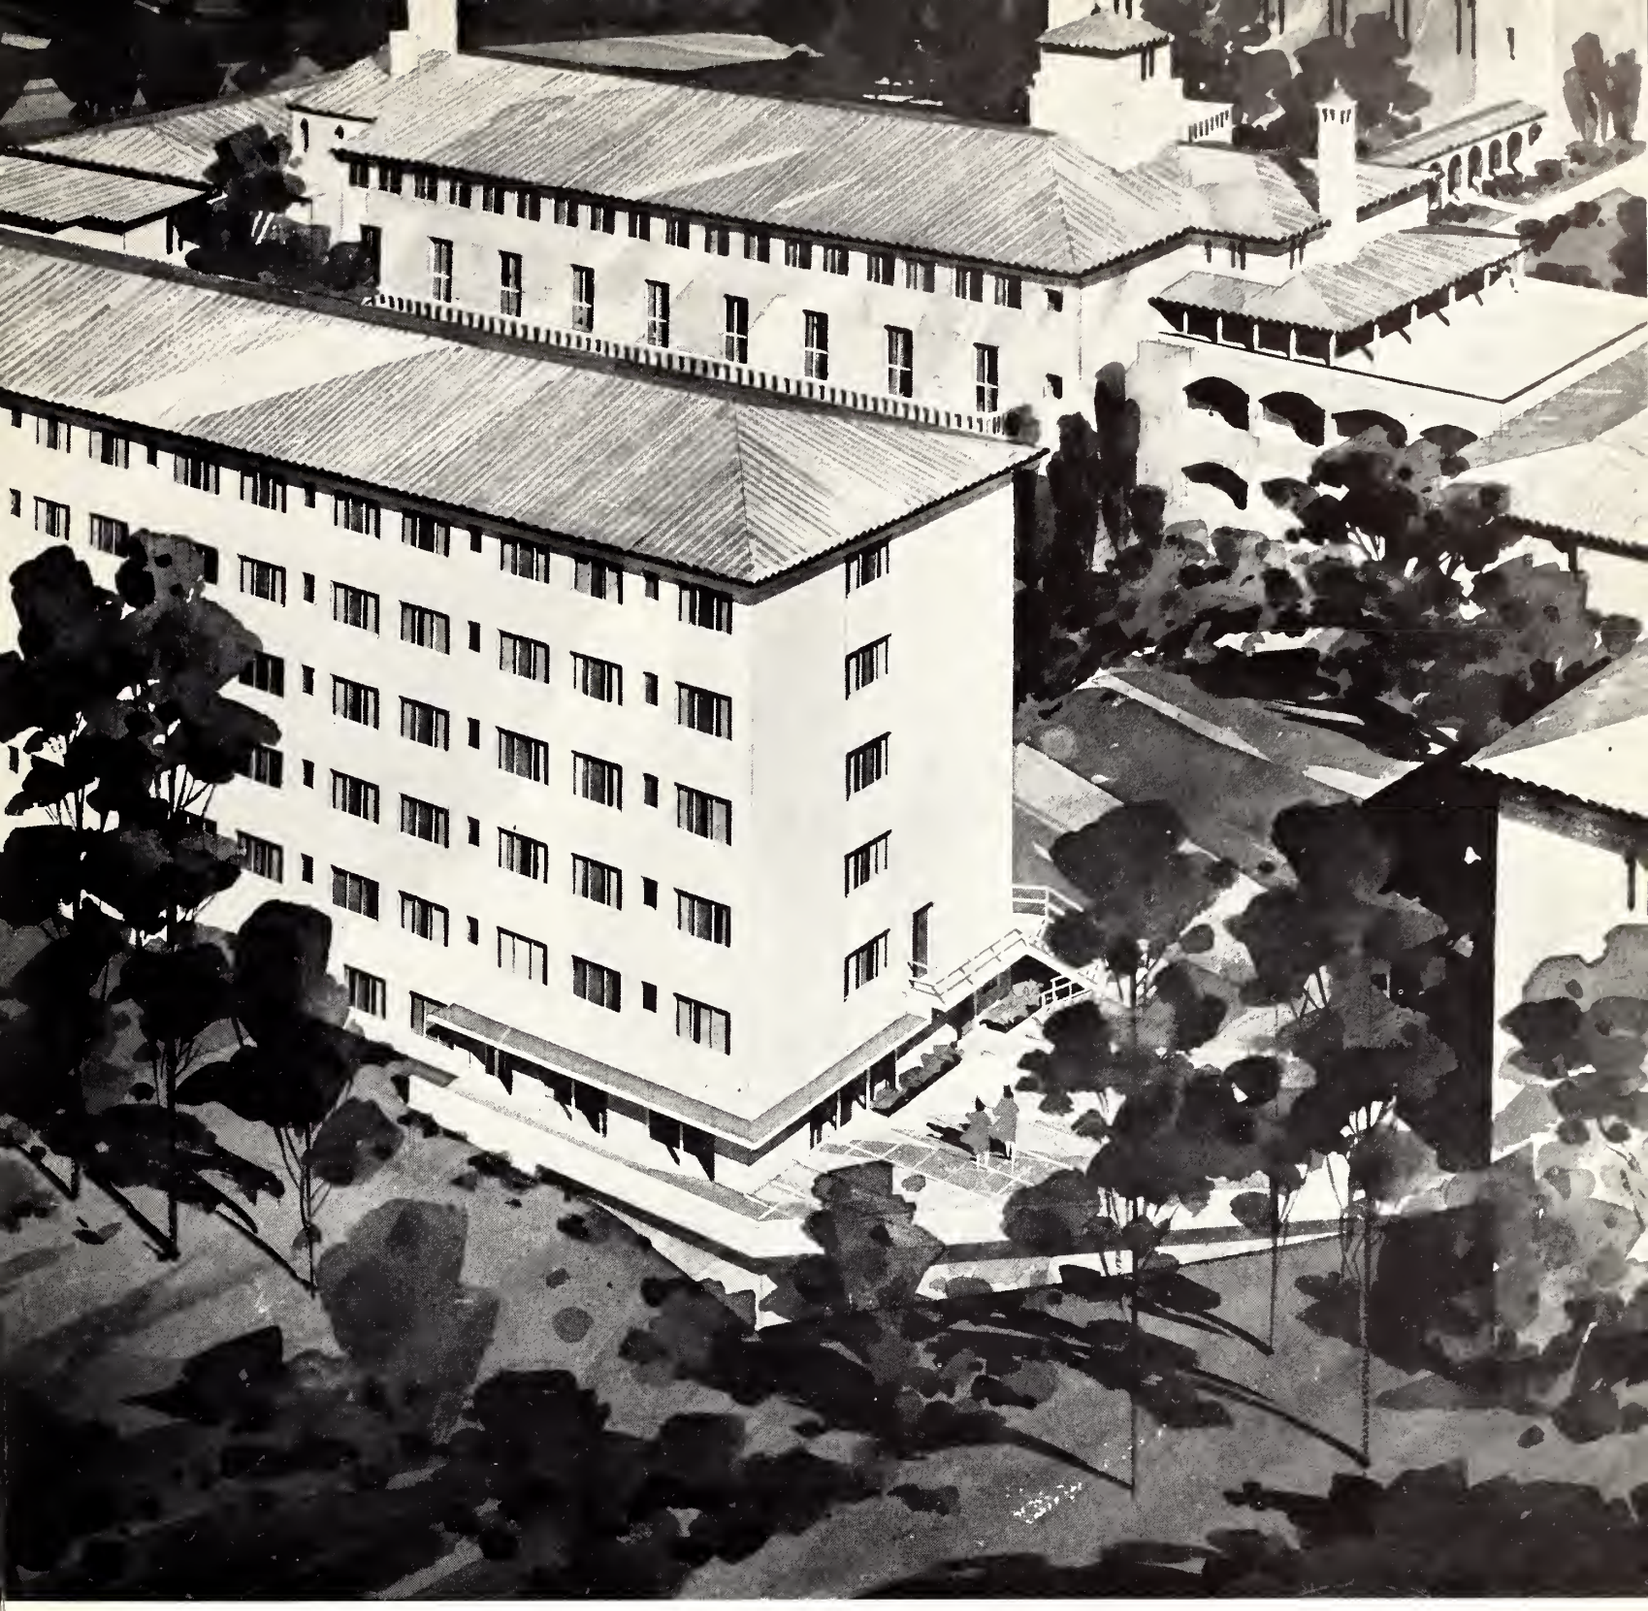
To build; to form.

The new residence hall will be
A visible sign
Of the construction
In progress at the Mount.

But the Mount
Builds with more enduring materials,
Forming you into
A mature person.

This annual
Is the story of that process.



CONSTRUCTION

I will go in unto the altar of God;
To God who giveth joy to my youth.

FACULTY

Those who plan —
Who draw the blueprints for
The Mount.

Lectures are only a part
Of these plans.
Far more important than the facts
They give
Is what they give of themselves.

These are the draftsmen,
Whose material is neither
Steel nor stone
But a person —
You.

MARY CHAPEL
The center
of four years' life
at Mount Saint Mary's College.

GRADUATES

After four years
The forming is over.

Remember the beginning?
The seemingly endless piling
Of brick on brick?
Retreats
Classes
Social events.

Now it is over.
The moments are fitted
Together
Into a strong foundation.
It is the reason for the Construction —
A graduate of the Mount

SENIORS

A time for planning
the future
and for remembering
the past.
So many things happen
in four years.

Winifred Stehly
Senior Class President

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Nancy Mack, Vice-President; Kathleen Burke, Secretary; Sheila Kelly, Treasurer; Theresa Binckley, Social Chairman.

SELECTED FOR WHO'S WHO — Back Row, Left to Right: Mary Ann Bauerlein, Annette Orland, Winifred Stehly, Susan Crowe, Mary Catherine Brow. Front Row: Sheila Thornton, Mary Ann Twersky, Gerry Roberts, Dorothy Huarte, Elizabeth Granville.

Always active —
Senior Panels
Senior Nites Out — all part of your last year at the Mount.

THE CHARLES WILLARD COE MEMORIAL LIBRARY

Empty, it is just another building,
Waiting for you, the student,
To bring it to its fulfillment.

CLASSES

And so you began.
Many elements
Entered into the Construction.

It was wonderful—
And confusing.

It was exciting—
But a trifle exhausting.

Yet somehow you always knew
That it would be worthwhile.
You knew what
You were building for.

The trophy-winning Mount Saint Mary's float in the Loyola Homecoming Parade.

The nails and bolts of the Construction job —
They don't seem important
But try to do without them.

Somewhere in the maze
Of journalism and tennis —
Home economics or English clubs,
You found the perfect activities
For the person you were becoming.
